

Grupo de Estudios Kantianos
Instituto de Filosofía “Dr. Alejandro Korn”

JORNADA KANT

Kant en diálogo con problemas contemporáneos

Jueves 16 DE MARZO, 2023

FACULTAD DE FILOSOFÍA Y LETRAS

Puan 480, Instituto de Filosofía, 4 piso, aula 452

Con gusto lxs invitamos a la Jornada Kant organizadas por el proyecto de cooperación internacional Marie Curie RISE “Kant in South America” y el Grupo de Estudios Kantianos.

SE RUEGA DIFUSIÓN ENTRE TODOS LXS POSIBLES INTERESADXS

Programa

Mesa 1: 14:00-16:00

Gastón Giribet (New York University): “Contingency of the natural laws and the plurality of worlds: from the Millionen Welten hypothesis in Kant’s precritical philosophy to the theory of the multiverse in contemporary physics”.

Felipe Montero (University of Buenos Aires): “The role of teleology in Darwin’s theory of natural selection in the light of Kant’s Critique of Judgment”.

Laura Pelegrin (University of Buenos Aires/ University Diego Portales/Universiteit Leiden): “On the Possibility of Temporal Incongruent Counterparts in the Kantian System”.

Mesa 2: 16:15-18:15

Nunzio Ali (University of Catania): “Kant, Inequality, and Domination”.

John Walsh (University of Halle): “Knowledge of Freedom in the Immediate Reception of Kant: The Curious Case of K.L. Reinhold”.

Diana Piroli (University of Catania): “A Kantian Response to Pluralism in Climate Justice”.

Borja Villanueva Ruiz (University of Buenos Aires): “The Notion of Aesthetic in the Kantian Work and its Relationship with Baumgarten”.

Final Conference: 18:30-19:30

Heiner Klemme (University of Halle): “Maximizing Freedom? Paul Guyer on the Value of Freedom and Reason”.